North America

Preface and Disclaimer to Ancestry Information [ Vansavli ] placed on this website

Please read this carefully before going through this Vansavli [ Ancestry Data ] to understand the preface and disclaimer so that no legal liabilities arise on part of Bhadran Samaj of North America, since it is our humble attempt to put together Ancestry Data for informative purpose only, so that our present generation and future generations know the roots of our home-land, religion and native Village BHADRAN

- 1) The information placed here is in Gujarati Language, and obtained from some sources who were kind and gracious enough to provide this in .pdf form and it has not been verified by anyone in the Samaj, while no objections have been received by any member of Samaj or anyone from the Village pundits also of any data being misleading, hence authenticity is presumed to be good.
- 2) As elders understand the last Vansavali available in Bhadran, was in 1965 or so, thereafter no such data was found in print or any other media and this Vansavali seems to be made by scanning those pages.
- 3) This data is being attempted to be translated in English for the benefit of English reading person and to create more family bonding towards their ancestors, no commercial intentions are being attempted.
- 4) No objection has been received by anyone in the Samaj or in Bhadran for this attempt to translate the data in English language.
- 5) This data should not be used for any family litigation or any legal disputes or social or family disputes, any such matters should be dealt on the basis of information that may be obtained from legal sources in the Bhdran Village or any legal institutional sources in Bhadran or District institutions or in State of Gujarat or India, if anyone would use this data for any such purpose, we do not stand to be responsible for this.

As on date : Oct 5th 2010, we have been requesting families to send us information of their families most updated data by themselves, and we will try to publish as much data as we get by Dec, 31st, 2010, in English language, any data that would be available would be placed again on March 31, 2011, since no one is paying the Bhadran Samaj of North America, for this data updation, we do not take any responsibility of meeting these timelines, since our volunteers are doing service free of cost, taking out time, out of daily chores and business, still we will try to meet the timelines.

We invite volunteers to help in this endeavor.

Thank You,

BHADRAN SAMAJ OF NORTH AMERICA
